Explanatory Note. Question No.26.

A member of the Municipal Council is entitled to a copy of the Municipal Bye-laws. It is true that Mr.Narayana Setty gave a report that he wanted to refer to the Octroi Bye-laws on some point. At the time the Bye-law referred to was with the undersigned and the same was returned to the Office in about a week after receipt of Mr.Narayana Setty's report. The letter of Mr.Narayana Setty was also sent to the office about the same time with the direction that the Bye-law referred to may be shown to Mr.Narayana setty. A clerk who was then in charge has now resigned; he has not handed over this paper to his successor and when sent for and questioned he says that he did not receive Mr.Narayana Setty's letter referred to. There are no printed copies of the Bye-laws in this Municipality. Only the manuscripts are found in the Office file. The members have not asked for copies of the Municipal Bye-laws to be supplied to them.
